

EdgeSequence@ k gives a list of the strands in the order that they should be calculated from the generators, which are returned as a list as the first element of the result, of the knot k , which is given in modified Dowker notation.